DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 4-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Haggard (RE 32,085) in view of Casey (USP 6,148,923).

With respect to claim 4, Haggard discloses a resilient wiper element (48) for wiping debris from the internal surface of a string of wet pipe without sealing against said pipe, comprising a flexible sheet having finite thickness (see figure 4 and column 5 line 53), a bore (90) extending through said flexible sheet and a rigid member in proximity to said bore, wherein said wiper element is notched (94, see figure 4) to enable folding or bending of said wiper element within said pipe. Haggard does not disclose that the wiper element comprises a rigid member in proximity to said bore. Casey teaches a rigid member on a wiper element to give form and shape to the wiper element. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to modify Haggard by including a rigid member as taught by Casey in order to give form and shape to the washer element.

With respect to claim 5, Haggard discloses that the wiper element is constructed of at least one elastomer (see column 6 lines 3-5 wherein rubber is an elastomer).

With respect to claim 6, Haggard in view of Casey teaches that rigid member comprises a washer (43) integrally molded in said wiper element around said bore (see Casey figure 1A).

With respect to claim 7, Haggard in view of Casey teach that the wiper element is substantially circular (see figure 4).

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments and amendments filed 11/13/06 have been sufficient to overcome the previous rejection. However, as noted above, Applicant's claims are not in condition for allowance. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new grounds of rejection presented in this office action.

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
